

Sandeep Acharya – Biography

Future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams and who knows it better than Indian Idol Sandeep Acharya - the sensational & stylish singing icon of the energetic, ambitious, and talented young generation of India.

Born on 4th February, 1984, Sandeep is a graduate in Science. Native of Bikaner (Rajasthan), he epitomizes grandeur as well as the characteristic mettle of the Rajputana land. He is the youngest in the family of two sisters and a brother - Anand.

A shy and extremely introvert, Sandeep did never tell his parents about his hidden talent and passion for the singing until they came to know through his increasing popularity. His first performance in hometown Bikaner was followed by a series of invitations and soon after, he was the celebrity singer of the dune city.

All through his forming years, he kept telling himself that he had to have confidence in his abilities, and then be tough enough to follow through. And the fate had so many things for him in store. His melodious voice won him accolades including coveted title of Indian Idol, a singing contract worth Rs. one crore and a platform to showcase his talent and potential to the world.

The biggest ever achievement of his life – The Title of Indian Idol didn't even elude him slightest from his characteristic belief in harbouring values and respecting individuals. He keeps visiting the notion that "People are meant to be loved and things are meant to be used; don't end up using people and loving things", and that's his biggest personal attribute.

One of his natural instincts is to keep his head cool & thinking, and takes the life as it comes. He believes in giving his best shot rather than winning, for he knows- if he works hard, success will surely follow him. He believes that his determination to succeed is more important than any other thing on this planet earth!

His likeability, endearing personality, ever smiling presence, and amazing metamorphosis-both in his singing competence and range were the most talked about features of the Indian Idol Season II which won him tremendous support and astounding fanfare globally. A truly professional yet down-to-earth, he is a great learner; he achieved what people would not even think at a tender age of 22. He surprises the world around him every time when the need arises, and millions of people witnessed it during Indian Idol – the biggest talent-hunt show on Indian television till date, wherein, he outnumbered many of equally talented & tough competitors weeks after weeks.

His soothing voice and youthful looks iconize him as the best young performer of the reality TV shows, and he takes it to the newer heights with the commitment to his passion-turned into profession. The ace singer Sonu Nigam immediately recognized the untapped voice quality during the auditions for Indian Idol. He arguably has the most lovable playback singing voice that won him his fate.

His debut album "Mere Saath Sara Jahaan" sprung up in style and was rated in top charts for weeks immediately after its release. He is the one every mother would love to have as a son; every sister as a brother, and every youngster to be the one. He is the rising star of the incredible India! Mini Mathur, the co-anchor of Indian Idol called him the 'Latest Heartthrob of the Nation'!